Karen A. Carlino

T. 617-757-6564 E. kcarlino@bowditch.com

OVERVIEW

Karen Carlino is a paralegal in the firm's family law practice. With more than 25 years of experience, Karen has deep knowledge of family law procedures and substantial expertise managing complex and high-stakes client matters. She prepares comprehensive financial statements, child support guidelines, discovery requests and responses, and a wide range of motions, subpoenas, and pleadings. She also drafts detailed financial spreadsheets, extensive inventories, and asset-division charts; organizes electronic files; and responds quickly to urgent client needs.

Karen is highly experienced in all phases of litigation and trial preparation, including conducting research, preparing depositions, coordinating the retention of expert witnesses and private investigators, and working with asset-search firms. She works closely with clients and attorneys to ensure cases move forward efficiently and strategically, providing clear communication, steady guidance, and exceptional client service throughout every step of the process.

Dedicated, thorough, and responsive, Karen supports attorneys in all aspects of trial, hearing, and deposition preparation and is committed to delivering the highest level of service to the firm's clients.
